Parish Mission Statement The Catholic community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, united in the love of God, comes together to worship the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, to provide for the spiritual growth of each member, to minister to one another's needs, to be servants and neighbors to all, to strengthen and share faith, to experience the richness of Jesus Christ. The Catholic community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, aware of its call to be the good news, accomplishes its mission through worship, education, service and personal example.

May God Bless and keep safe in his care our Service Men and Women whose lives are in danger every day. They heroically serve to defend and maintain freedom around the world as well as at home. Our prayer for them reflects our great admiration and love for them. May God bless them, watch over them, and protect them always.

Year of the Family! As we move through the summer months, Bishop Cunningham offers a four practical, powerful, and effective ways to form a domestic church within our own families: prayer and worship, formation, community, and service. To learn more, we invite you to visit syracusedioocese.org and click YEAR OF THE FAMILY.

Anna Asks... What do Catholic Missionaries try to accomplish? In years prior to Vatican II, there was often a sense that if one died without being baptized in the Catholic Church they would be denied entrance into heaven. 16th century missionaries like Francis Xavier were greatly concerned with getting people baptized. Developments in theological understandings of the proper relationship between Catholics and members of other faith traditions have evolved over time. Vatican II clearly teaches in Lumen Gentium, the document where the Church explains her purpose and mission, that, "All are called to belong to the new People of God" (#13). Some are clearly members of the Catholic faith and explicitly baptized in the Church. Others are baptized in different Christian traditions. Others are members of different religious traditions (e.g., Jews, Hindus, Muslims, and Buddhists). And there are those who sincerely seek God and strive to do God's will, although they have no knowledge of the Gospel of Christ (#13-16). Today, Catholics missionaries preach the word in love and deed. Many people in the communities around the world where missionaries serve are attracted to join the Church because of their selfless and heroic work. Many others work along with Catholics to build up the people of God as the Holy Spirit so moves them. In short, Catholics do hope to convert the world by their actions, but their focus is on inspiring others with their service and then leaving the choice of conversion up to individuals.

Mission Appeal Weekend Next weekend we welcome Fr. Reyes, a Missionhurst-CICM Congregation of the Immaculate Heart of Mary missionary. He will be sharing about his life and dedication to the people he serves in the Philippines. Unlike some relief organizations that come only when there is a news-making crisis, Missionhurst-CCIM missionaries come prepared to stay, living among the people, sharing their privations, and participating in the day-to-day effort needed to achieve life-long spiritual and material changes. Envelopes are available in the Gathering Space this weekend and can be returned next weekend when Fr. Reyes will be with us.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton is on Social Media Well, the parish is anyways. Internet wasn't quite invented during her time, but her letters show that she would have been excellent on Facebook and Twitter. Please follow our Social Media links (Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter) through the parish website. They are found on the bottom footer of the website.

Road Trip!!! The parish is sponsoring a pilgrimage to Baltimore and Emmitsburg to follow in the footsteps of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton on October 10-11, 2018. The bus trip to Baltimore costs $280, and includes: bus transportation, entrance and tours of two museums, Dinner in the Baltimore's Little Italy, hotel accommodations (if you prefer a single room, add $40). A deposit of $75 per person due ASAP. Balance due September 10th. Hurry! Space is limited. Questions? Contact the main office.

Holy Day of Obligation – August 15 – The Feast of the Assumption. Masses will be celebrated on Wednesday, August 15th at 6:45am, 9:00am, and 7:00pm. Please plan to celebrate this beautiful Marian Feast Day, when we celebrate what awaits all who, like Mary, respond faithfully to God’s commands – joining our Savior forever in heaven.

Funeral Luncheon Teams are Forming St. Elizabeth Ann Seton is forming teams to serve families in their time of sorrow by providing a place for a meal, a drink and companionship with their family and friends. We hope to get enough volunteers so we can create three separate groups of teams. Each team will operate on a rotating basis, ensuring that each team get a chance to serve. If you are interested in serving as Team Leader, being on the Prep Team, Food Team or Clean Up Team, contact Mary Ballard at 315-635-6825 or Donna Walter at 315-652-1477 for additional information.

Hospitality is Heating up Have you missed your cup of coffee or lemonade this summer?? Volunteers are needed to start up Hospitality again in September. If you are interested or have any questions, call the office at 315-652-4300.

Religious Education Registration The deadline to register has passed however it’s still important that you register your children for Religious Education for the 2018-19 school year so we can get an accurate count for books, teachers, and classroom planning. Online Registration is available through the Parish website. After July 1, there will be a $20 late fee.

EAS Preschool has openings in the Pre-K class for the 2018-2019 school year. The Pre-K class is a unique class for children who will turn 5 by January 1, 2019, but are not ready for Kindergarten. The Pre-K class is small, with 16 children, one teacher and one teacher assistant. The class meets Monday-Friday from 12:30-3:00. We also have limited openings in our 3 year old class. If you are interested in touring our program and/or registering your child, please contact Nicole Pompo, Preschool Director, at 315.652.9364 or preschool@stelizabethville.org

Youth Ministry Information Meeting Our parish is launching a new initiative for youth. The youth are the future of our church! We would like to invite all adults 21+ to attend an informational meeting in the gathering space on September 10 at 6pm where we will share our plans and receive input from you. Catered by Avicelli’s and Bull & Bear. RSVP to Julie Moss jmoss@stelizabethville.org or 315-652-4300.

Bottle and Can Drive – Bring your bottles and cans to Baldwinsville Redemption Center, 53 S. Salina St (Cold Springs Rd), Baldwinsville, NY. They give you great service and we get the money to use for the youth at SEAS Youth Group and Faith Formation Grades 1-12. For hours of operation call 315-935-4053

School is Right Around the Corner. And so is our August special collection. With the sales for school supplies appearing in the store fliers now is a good time to start the back-to-school shopping. In August we will be collecting the following supplies for the area elementary schools; colored pencils, Crayola crayons, erasers, glue sticks, yellow pencils, and composition notebooks (wide ruled). Thank you!

Sharing The Season – The Seton Food Pantry is looking for any gardeners in the parish willing to share their home grown produce this summer. If you have a productive year and are looking for somewhere to share your extra fruits and vegetables, the Seton Food Pantry would welcome the items. Please contact Jennifer Guild, Coordinator at 315-652-4300. Thank you.

A Prayer Chain is in place at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. Serving on the Prayer Chain is a way for good people to serve God and to bring blessings to others who will be grateful for the prayers of Prayer Chain Members. If prayers for self or for others are needed and desired, please call the Parish Office at 652-4300 and your prayer requests will be forwarded to Angie Peterson. At times we all need prayers and others need prayers too.

Please Let Us Know if you or a family member is homebound and would like to receive Holy Communion at home. Deacon Bill and Father O’Connor make regular First Friday calls and whenever home Communion is requested.

Vocation Reflection St Paul warns that “bitterness, anger, fury, reviling” can poison God’s family. Rather, as children of God, we must be kind, compassionate, and forgiving. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is key to the health of the family of God. Confessors needs. Visit www.vocations-syracuse.org
