Parish Mission Statement The Catholic community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, united in the love of God, comes together to worship the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, to provide for the spiritual growth of each member, to minister to one another's needs, to be servants and neighbors to all, to strengthen and share faith, to experience the richness of Jesus Christ. The Catholic community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, aware of its call to be the good news, accomplishes its mission through worship, education, service and personal example.

May God Bless and keep safe in his care our Service Men and Women whose lives are in danger every day. They heroically serve to defend and maintain freedom around the world as well as at home. Our prayer for them reflects our great admiration and love for them. May God bless them, watch over them, and protect them always.

Year of the Family! As we move through the summer months, Bishop Cunningham offers a four practical, powerful, and effective ways to form a domestic church within our own families: prayer and worship, formation, community, and service. To learn more, we invite you to visit syracusedioocese.org and click YEAR OF THE FAMILY.

Anna Asks... Why do we bless animals? Saint Francis of Assisi – perhaps the best-known Catholic Saint – is well known for his love of animals. He would preach to the birds and sing of their Creator. So it is on or near his feast day, October 4th, that we gather to bless the animals that are dear to us. We are reminded of the interdependence of all of creation and we give glory to God for his great design. We thank God for the gift of the pets we have welcomed into our homes and also ask the Lord to bless these animals that are such blessings in our lives. We pray for their health and happiness. The Catholic Book of Blessings includes a beautiful ritual which we will use here at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton today, October 7th at 12:30pm. See you and your beloved pets there!

Is This Mass Intention For Your Loved One? It is always a special moment for our parish whenever family members attend a Mass whose intention is for a deceased family member or loved one. In order to add to your celebration of the Mass we invite you to please inform any member of the hospitality team of your presence so you may be offered the opportunity to bring up the gifts during the offertory. This is a wonderful time for the entire community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton church to join you in offering their prayers for you and for the person for whom this Mass is intended.

Celebrate Respect Life Month You're invited to join Catholics nationwide in celebrating Respect Life Month this October with the message "Every Life: Cherished, Chosen, Sent" Learn more at www.usccb.org/respectlife. "Heavenly Father... give us love for all people, especially the most vulnerable, and help us bear witness to the truth that every life is worth living."

Trust In The Truth is the theme for the 2018 Catholic Women's Conference set for Saturday, October 27, at the Oncenter in Syracuse. Speakers for the one-day conference are Fr Shawn Monahan, OMV, who will speak on Our True Identity as God's Beloved (A message of love and healing in the arms of Mary), Niki Kingsley, speaking on The Truth Will Set You Free (A message of hope and freedom in Christ) and Susan Tassone, speaking on Champions for the Holy Souls (A message of faith in God's promise of salvation) You can register online at www.SyracuseCatholicWomen.org or fill out a registration form which are available in the Gathering Area.

Pauline Sisters Book Fair, Oct 27th & 28th The Daughters of St. Paul, Catholic Sisters, who run a Publishing House in Boston, MA will be at our church after the Masses the weekend of Oct 27/28. They are invited as exhibitors each year at our annual Catholic Women's Conference. These Media Sisters will bring with them a wonderful selection of materials which they publish and produce. Be sure to stop by and peruse their display in the gathering area: Spiritual reading, Lives of the Saints, books for Children, DVD's, music and more!
