Parish Mission Statement The Catholic community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, united in the love of God, comes together to worship the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, to provide for the spiritual growth of each member, to minister to one another's needs, to be servants and neighbors to all, to strengthen and share faith, to experience the richness of Jesus Christ. The Catholic community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, aware of its call to be the good news, accomplishes its mission through worship, education, service and personal example.

May God Bless and keep safe in his care our Service Men and Women whose lives are in danger every day. They heroically serve to defend and maintain freedom around the world as well as at home. Our prayer for them reflects our great admiration and love for them. May God bless them, watch over them, and protect them always.

The Year of the Family is Wrapping Up As we move towards the end of the liturgical year on November 25th, the Feast Day of Christ the King, Bishop Cunningham has invited parishes to celebrate the conclusion of this special year. St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish will be represented by a parish family at a Diocesan Mass this weekend and they will bring back to each of us a "family blessing" to conclude the year.

Youth Singers/Musicians Wanted! St Elizabeth Ann Seton is again forming a Christmas youth choir and providing our young musicians to perform as part of this year's 4:00PM Christmas Eve children's Mass. Please note the corrected dates of practice. Nov 10, 3:30-4:15PM, Nov 17, 3:30-4:15PM, Dec 1, 3:30-4:15PM, Dec 8, 3:30-4:15PM, Dec 15, 3:30-4:15PM and Dec 22, 3:30-4:15PM (Dress Rehearsal). Signup sheets are available on the Youth table in the Gathering Area.

Novena for Peace With the campaign season behind us, there is a great opportunity to focus our prayer and attention on peace, understanding, respect, and unity. Let us continue to pray for our country and for our own families, especially as we move toward the holidays. You are invited to pray the Peace Prayer of St. Francis leading up to Thanksgiving.

*Lord, make me an instrument of your peace,
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy;*

*O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.*

Second Chance To Be Trained As an Altar Server – If you are one of the boys or girls who expressed interest in becoming an Altar Server but were not able to attend the scheduled training session that past Saturday, another training opportunity is being made available on Saturday, December 1st at 11:00AM in the Church.

Save The Date: December 1st! Christmas workshop for kids 10am-5pm (free babysitting while you go shopping). Spaghetti dinner with Santa 4-7:30PM! A whole day of events for the family! Ticket sales for spaghetti dinner start November 17th after the 5:00PM Mass.

Basket Raffle To support the youth trips of the parish, please buy tickets for the basket raffles. These baskets have been generously donated and the winners will be drawn at the Parish Pasta Dinner. Take a chance on these golf, lotto, home tech, and movie themed baskets.

Save the Date! Advent Parish Mission- Pope Francis writes...Jesus tells those persecuted or humiliated for his sake to “rejoice and be glad”(Mt 5:12). “The Lord asks everything of us, and in return he offers us true life, the happiness for which we were created. He wants us to be saints and not to settle for a bland and mediocre existence.” The call to holiness is something all of us must respond to. Join us as we reflect on growing deeper in holiness during the season of Advent. Syracuse Seminarians Brendan Foley, John Leo Odour, and Dennis Walker will lead reflections and prayer Dec. 2nd, 3rd, and 4th in the Church at 7pm.

Safe-Environment Re-certification: There will be a re-certification training on November 28th here at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton from 6:30 - 8pm. You must register online at syracusediocese.org/safe-environment to attend this training. Questions, please contact Nick Calaprico at ncalaprico@stelizabethville.org.

Liturgical Ministry Evening (or Morning) of Reflection and Training: ALL current lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist should attend one of the two sessions, Saturday, December 8th following the 9:00AM Holy Day Mass, or Wednesday December 12 from 7:00-8:30PM. During the session, we will spend some time in prayer and reflection on the significance of bringing Christ to the people of the parish. We will also discuss our procedures during Mass. Our liturgies will flow better and allow our parish family to connect with God if we are all on the same page, so your attendance is very important. If you are unable to attend, please contact the office.

In Gratitude for Generosity There are so many ways our parish responds generously to the needs of others as we become aware of them - just look around at the Thanksgiving food collection this weekend. Furthermore, the recent collections in response to the hurricanes brought in $3000 and The Hope Appeal goal was quickly surpassed this year. If you have an outstanding pledge, please make payment on that pledge by the end of the month. Thank you for supporting so many important charities.

Thanksgiving Mass Schedule We will celebrate Masses here at St. EAS on Wednesday at 7pm and Thursday at 10am. We invite you to make this part of your family tradition. What better way to give thanks to God than to gather for the Eucharist (the Greek word means “Thanksgiving”)?

A Prayer Chain is in place at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. Serving on the Prayer Chain is a way for good people to serve God and to bring blessings to others who will be grateful for the prayers of Prayer Chain Members. If prayers for self or for others are needed and desired, please call the Parish Office at 652-4300 and your prayer requests will be forwarded to Angie Peterson. At times we all need prayers and others need prayers too.

Flowers On The Altar each week can be dedicated to parishioners deceased or living family member. Flowers may be arranged for by calling Rose Bud Florist at 315-474-0613.

Please Let Us Know if you or a family member is homebound and would like to receive Holy Communion at home. Deacon Bill and Father O’Connor make regular First Friday calls and whenever home Communion is requested.

The Word of God & Mother Seton...

Every time we gather at Mass, Jesus’ once-for-all sacrifice on the Cross is made present to us. Hebrews reminds us today of what a gift we have in Christ’s sacrifice: the forgiveness of all sin. The Eucharist makes present the sacrifice of the Cross, and whenever we receive Jesus’ Body and Blood, we can receive unlimited grace and strength that flow directly from Christ. Mother Seton often prayed these words as she contemplated the Eucharist, maybe we should do the same: “O Lord, keep us in Your way, direct us in Your paths, recall us from our wanderings, make us to hear Your voice with gladness, and to rejoice in Your salvation.”

Vocation Reflection The Letter to the Hebrews mentions the priests of the Old Covenant offering daily sacrifices for sins. Jesus, the Great High Priest, took away all sin with his offering on the cross. At each Mass today, the priest again offers us the Sacrifice of Calvary, by which our sins are taken away. Thank God for the gift of the Mass and the priesthood.
