Parish Mission Statement The Catholic community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, united in the love of God, comes together to worship the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, to provide for the spiritual growth of each member, to minister to one another's needs, to be servants and neighbors to all, to strengthen and share faith, to experience the richness of Jesus Christ. The Catholic community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, aware of its call to be the good news, accomplishes its mission through worship, education, service and personal example.

May God Bless and keep safe in his care our Service Men and Women whose lives are in danger every day. They heroically serve to defend and maintain freedom around the world as well as at home. Our prayer for them reflects our great admiration and love for them. May God bless them, watch over them, and protect them always.

Anna Asks... What is Christ the King of? A country? Heaven? Earth? Well, yes, and more. This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, and the liturgical year invites us to think about time. Yes, time. Time is received as a gift and when we are conscious of that, we begin to really live differently. Yet, for many Catholics who commemorate the Feast, it is just one more somewhat esoteric celebration which we go through every year. We go through the motions of remembering that this is not the end. The Catholic Christian notion of receiving time as a gift from God is one of the many things which make us counter5cultural. It is a gift received from the One who is King of all time. Thank God for the gift and consider how you can live differently, when you are not in charge, but just a steward of a gift given by Christ the King.

The Year of the Family concludes today. With the end of the Liturgical year today, we wrap up the Year of the Family. To mark the close of this special year, Bishop Cunningham held a special Mass at the Cathedral last week. He provided a blessing to each parish. The Peterson/Duke Family brought this blessing to our parish. Copies are available for your family home in front of the altar. Please take a family blessing home and pray it together. May the graces of this year live on in your homes.

Youth Singers/Musicians Wanted! St Elizabeth Ann Seton is again forming a Christmas youth choir and providing our young musicians to perform as part of this year's 4:00PM Christmas Eve children's Mass. Please note the corrected dates of practice. Dec 1, 3:30-4:15PM, Dec 8, 3:30-4:15PM, Dec 15, 3:30-4:15PM and Dec 22, 3:30-4:15PM (Dress Rehearsal). Sign-up sheets are available on the Youth table in the Gathering Area.

Second Chance To Be Trained As an Altar Server – If you are one of the boys or girls who expressed interest in becoming an Altar Server but were not able to attend the scheduled training session that past Saturday, another training opportunity is being made available on Saturday, December 1st at 11:00AM in the Church.

Thank You for Thanksgiving Collection and Distribution: Last weekend our Parish assisted with the distribution of 140 Thanksgiving dinner to the families of the Seton Food Pantry. Enough thanks cannot be expressed for your generosity whether it was with the purchasing of food, money for turkeys, assembling the packages, or being a deliverer to someone's car. Your dedication to this community was evident. Donation for turkey totaled $2,358 which assisted in the purchasing 160 turkeys.

Last Chance!! Any College student interested in receiving the weekly parish bulletin as well as the Care Package , please share with us the information requested below. Last school year we had 70 of our college students on our mailing list.

Save the Date! Advent Parish Mission- Pope Francis writes...Jesus tells those persecuted or humiliated for his sake to “rejoice and be glad”(Mt 5:12). “The Lord asks everything of us, and in return he offers us true life, the happiness for which we were created. He wants us to be saints and not to settle for a bland and mediocre existence.” The call to holiness is something all of us must respond to. Join us as we reflect on growing deeper in holiness during the season of Advent. Syracuse Seminarians Brendan Foley, John Leo Odour, and Dennis Walker will lead reflections and prayer Dec. 2nd, 3rd, and 4th in the Church at 7pm.

Advent Activities Please check out the insert for Advent. The Parish Mission will be a great kick off event. Brendan and his classmates are preparing to inspire us all. There are extended opportunities for Reconciliation. The little blue books are available for daily inspiration. Of course, daily mass is a great way to prepare for Christmas as well. Join us at 6:45 or 9:00am on weekdays.

Safe-Environemnt Re-certification: There will be a re-certification training on November 28th here at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton from 6:30 - 8pm. You must register online at syracusediocese.org/safe-environemnt to attend this training. Questions, please contact Nick Calaprico at ncalaprico@stelizabethbville.org.

Save The Date: December 1st! Christmas workshop for kids 10am-5pm (free babysitting while you go shopping). Spaghetti dinner with Santa 4-7:30PM! A whole day of events for the family! Ticket sales for spaghetti dinner start November 17th after the 5:00PM Mass.

Basket Raffle To support the youth trips of the parish, please buy tickets for the basket raffles. These baskets have been generously donated and the winners will be drawn at the Parish Pasta Dinner. Take a chance on these golf, lotto, home tech, and movie themed baskets.

Liturgical Ministry Evening (or Morning) of Reflection and Training: ALL current lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist should attend one of the two sessions, Saturday, December 8th following the 9:00AM Holy Day Mass, or Wednesday December 12 from 7:00-8:30PM. During the session, we will spend some time in prayer and reflection on the significance of bringing Christ to the people of the parish. We will also discuss our procedures during Mass. Our liturgies will flow better and allow our parish family to connect with God if we are all on the same page, so your attendance is very important. If you are unable to attend, please contact the office.

A Prayer Chain is in place at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. Serving on the Prayer Chain is a way for good people to serve God and to bring blessings to others who will be grateful for the prayers of Prayer Chain Members. If prayers for self or for others are needed and desired, please call the Parish Office at 652-4300 and your prayer requests will be forwarded to Angie Peterson. At times we all need prayers and others need prayers too.

Flowers On The Altar each week can be dedicated to parishioners deceased or living family member. Flowers may be arranged for by calling Rose Bud Florist at 315-474-0613.

Please Let Us Know if you or a family member is homebound and would like to receive Holy Communion at home. Deacon Bill and Father O'Connor make regular First Friday calls and whenever home Communion is requested.

The Word of God & Mother Seton...

Those who “belong to the truth” listen to Jesus’ voice. Do we think of ourselves as belonging to God? As God’s “treasured possessions” (Ex19:5)? The Solemnity of Christ the King offers us an opportunity to rededicate ourselves to the Truth, to Jesus Christ who forever reigns over us in our hearts. Mother Seton challenges us: “You know the general principle: that God is everywhere...on the throne of His glory, among the blessed indeed, but also throughout the whole universe which He fills, governs and preserves, ruling it by wisdom and grace...Yet in the practice of life, we live along as if we scarcely remembered

Vocation Reflection “My kingdom is not of this world,” Jesus told Pilate. So daily, we pray, “Thy Kingdom come.” We are in need of generous and courageous workers who labor to bring the peace and justice of God to this world. Continue to pray that young people will have the courage to follow this call in Religious Life. For more information, contact Fr. Joe O’Connor at 315- 470-1468.
