Parish Mission Statement The Catholic community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, united in the love of God, comes together to worship the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, to provide for the spiritual growth of each member, to minister to one another’s needs, to be servants and neighbors to all, to strengthen and share faith, to experience the richness of Jesus Christ. The Catholic community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, aware of its call to be the good news, accomplishes its mission through worship, education, service and personal example.

May God Bless and keep safe in his care our Service Men and Women whose lives are in danger every day. They heroically serve to defend and maintain freedom around the world as well as at home. Our prayer for them reflects our great admiration and love for them. May God bless them, watch over them, and protect them always.

Prayer for Vocations “Lord of the harvest, BLESS young people with the gift of courage to respond to your call. Open their hearts to great ideals, to great things. INSPIRE all of your disciples to mutual love and giving – for vocations blossom in the good soil of faithful people, INSTILL those in religious life, parish ministries, and families with the confidence and grace to invite others to embrace the bold and noble path of a life consecrated to you. UNITE us to Jesus through prayer and sacrament, so that we may cooperate with you in building your reign of mercy and truth, of justice and peace. Amen.” (Pope Francis)

Anna Asks... Why does a priest lay on the floor during Ordination? Before the actual Ordination takes place, the Bishop invites the congregation to intercede on the behalf of the candidate as he approaches the sacrament of Holy Orders through a special prayer, called the Litany of Saints. This calls to mind the fact that not only those faithful on earth, but also the entire Church in heaven is praying during this important moment. We invoke Mary and Joseph, the saints from the Gospels and the heroic martyrs of the early Church, some of the humblest saints and some of the most influential teachers of the Church, as well as the founders of the great religious orders, and ask them for their prayers. The one being ordained will lay on the floor while the assembly prays. The gesture of prostration is a symbol of his submission to the will of God. It is a reminder of his unworthiness and total dependence on God. This is a very powerful moment as this man hands his life over to God in total abandon. After the Litany, the Bishop prays the prayer of consecration and lays hands on his head – the moment he becomes a priest.

The Word of God & Mother Seton... Traditionally, we venerate Stephen as the first martyr in the Church (Acts 7:55-60). Martyrdom is the supreme witness given to the truth of the faith...one endures death through an act of fortitude (CCC 2473). To be so courageous and steadfast in faith can only be a gift from God. Stephen's witness along with the thousands of martyrs after him plant seeds from which the Church continues to grow. This ultimate sacrifice is evidence of a profound love for the Lord and naturally points others toward wanting to discover that same intimacy with God. Let's strive to make our “yes” to the will of God be an outward sign that draws all to be one in Christ. “Of the past, nothing should remain but sorrow for sin; of the future, nothing anticipated but the hope of heaven; of the present, one sole and only aim, to fulfill in every moment His adorable will.”-St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

A Prayer Chain is in place at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. Serving on the Prayer Chain is a way for good people to serve God and to bring blessings to others who will be grateful for the prayers of Prayer Chain Members. If prayers for self or for others are needed and desired, please call the Parish Office at 652-4300 and your prayer requests will be forwarded to Angie Peterson. At times we all need prayers and others need prayers too.

Vocation Reflection... Jesus promised his disciples that they would be clothed in power from God. As a follower of Jesus, you are also given that same promise. Pray for the grace to be a faithful witness either as a Priest or religious. For more information on Vocation, please visit: www.vocations-syracuse.org.
