Parish Mission Statement The Catholic community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, united in the love of God, comes together to worship the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, to provide for the spiritual growth of each member, to minister to one another's needs, to be servants and neighbors to all, to strengthen and share faith, to experience the richness of Jesus Christ. The Catholic community of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, aware of its call to be the good news, accomplishes its mission through worship, education, service, and personal example.

May God Bless and keep safe in his care our Service Men and Women whose lives are in danger every day. They heroically serve to defend and maintain freedom around the world as well as at home. Our prayer for them reflects our great admiration and love for them. May God bless them, watch over them, and protect them always.

Diocesan Prayer for Vocations "God, my Father, you created me with a specific purpose for my life; this is my vocation. By following your plan, I will be happy on earth, earn the reward of heaven, and help others to do the same. Please help me to hear, understand, and follow your call with my whole heart, especially when it seems most difficult. Saint Joseph, patron of the Universal Church, pray for me to know and accept God's will for my life. Amen."

Bike (and Walk) for Brady Brady Faith Center has a wonderful relationship with St. EAS. Since 2017, we support Brady as part of the sustaining givers program, donating monthly to support their amazing efforts in the City of Syracuse. On September 10, we have an opportunity to connect with members of Brady Faith Center and their friends. There will be free and delicious food, music, Otto the Orange, kids games and fun for all at Brady Farm, located at 150 Ford Ave, Syracuse, NY 13207. There will be bike rides of 40, 20, or 10 miles and a walk around Brady Farm. There are also members of the community and our parish who are biking from Buffalo to NYC – 560 miles! To register for a bike ride or to donate, go to bradyfaithcenter.org.

Birthday Party On August 28, 1774 Richard and Catherine Bayley welcomed Elizabeth into this world. To honor our patron saint, we will have donuts and pastries after Masses this weekend. Please plan to stick around for a little bit after Mass and enjoy the company of fellow parishioners as we celebrate St. Elizabeth's 248th birthday.

SEAS Preschool has openings in our 4-year-old class for the 2022-23 school year. For more information contact Nicole, Preschool Director at 315-652-9364 or preschool@stelizabethville.org. We'd love to have your child join us for an amazing year.

Have you "officially" joined the parish? We have many new faces joining us at Mass each week, and we extend to you a warm and heartfelt welcome. We would love to have you join the parish family. There are even some who have been coming here for years and have not officially joined the parish. There is a simple way to know if you are registered. If you are not getting envelopes in the mail, you are not in the parish database. By filling out a Parish Registration form, we are able to keep a more accurate count of the number of families in our parish. This helps with planning for the future. You can do this right on the parish website (click the "Join Us" link on the Contact tab). Or pick up a Registration Form outside the parish office.

2022 Syracuse Catholic Women's Conference: This year's conference will be on Saturday, October 15th from 7:30am - 5:00pm and held at the OnCenter Convention Center. The theme for the conference is For Such a Time as This: "Maintaining a Eucharistic Heart in a Broken World". Members of the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Women's Prayer and Book Club will be attending and hope others will join us! To review the program details, cost and register to attend please visit: <https://www.syracusecatholicwomen.org/> We hope to see you there!

Thank you from Erin's Angels To St Elizabeth Ann Seton Parishioners, Thank you so much for your contributions to Erin's Angels backpack food program. Your parish is always so generous. The children who benefit from this program thank you. There are 108 needy children we pack for in the Phoenix Central School District. It is so appreciated! God Bless You! – Erin's Angels.

Fr. O'Connor is away on retreat this week Canon Law smartly requires priests to take an annual retreat. By taking time away and connecting with the Lord through scripture and silence, one making a retreat can reconnect with the voice of the Lord, like troops who retreat from the heat of the battle to recharge and refocus. There are some religious orders who make it their life mission to lead others on retreats. The Oblates of the Virgin Mary in Milton, Massachusetts do just this. Please keep those who do this great work and the priests making retreat this week in your prayers.

Welcome and Thank you to Bishop Cunningham and Father O'Brien for celebrating Masses this week while Father O'Conner is away on retreat.

Our Daily bREAD - St Elizabeth Ann Seton said, "Cheerfulness prepares a generous mind for all the noblest acts of religion – love, adoration, praise, and every union with our God." Let us be cheerful as we gather together as a Parish Family to celebrate the 248th birthday of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. Come commemorate our patron saint's life. Learn more about her extraordinary journey by reading her biography, Elizabeth Bayley Seton 1774-1821: Mother, Foundress, Saint, by Annabelle M. Melville and the many resources we have available at our kiosk. Help fulfill her life long work of spreading the Word of God through reading and service.

Saint of the Day - St Bartholomew - We know little about Saint Bartholomew except that he was one of the original twelve apostles. If he is the man called Nathanael, then we know he is from Cana in Galilee, but that still doesn't tell us much. But knowing that he gave his life in the service of the faith is enough. In the New Testament, Bartholomew is mentioned only in the lists of the apostles. Some scholars identify him with Nathanael, a man of Cana in Galilee who was summoned to Jesus by Philip. Jesus paid him a great compliment: "Here is a true Israelite. There is no duplicity in him" (John 1:47b). When Nathanael asked how Jesus knew him, Jesus said, "I saw you under the fig tree" (John 1:48b). Whatever amazing revelation this involved, it brought Nathanael to exclaim, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the King of Israel" (John 1:49b). But Jesus countered with, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than this" (John 1:50b). Nathanael did see greater things. He was one of those to whom Jesus appeared on the shore of the Sea of Tiberias after his resurrection (see John 21:1-14). They had been fishing all night without success. In the morning, they saw someone standing on the shore though no one knew it was Jesus. He told them to cast their net again, and they made so great a catch that they could not haul the net in. Then John cried out to Peter, "It is the Lord." When they brought the boat to shore, they found a fire burning, with some fish laid on it and some bread. Jesus invited them to come and eat their meal. John relates that although they knew it was Jesus, none of the apostles presumed to inquire who he was. Reflection: Bartholomew or Nathanael? We are confronted again with the fact that we know almost nothing about most of the apostles. Yet the unknown ones were also foundation stones, the 12 pillars of the new Israel whose 12 tribes now encompass the whole earth. Their personalities were secondary—without thereby being demeaned—to their great office of bearing tradition from their firsthand experience, speaking in the name of Jesus, putting the Word Made Flesh into human words for the enlightenment of the world. Their holiness was not an introverted contemplation of their status before God. It was a gift that they had to share with others. The Good News was that all are called to the holiness of being Christ's members, by the gracious gift of God. The simple fact is that humanity is totally meaningless unless God is its total concern. Then humanity, made holy with God's own holiness, becomes the most precious creation of God.

Invitation to Adoration - St. Elizabeth Ann Seton had a profound devotion to the Most Holy Eucharist, where she recognized the living presence of the Lord. She often spent time in adoration in front of the Blessed Sacrament. "How sweet, the presence of Jesus to the longing and harassed soul! He is instant peace and balm to every wound." St. EAS offers adoration on Tuesdays from 6 to 8 pm, and Fridays from 7 to 9 am.

Blessed Carlo Acutis and the Eucharistic Miracles Exhibition In anticipation of the Exhibition of the Eucharistic Miracles of the World, Holy Cross Church, Dewitt's, monthly movie will be two-30 minute documentaries on Blessed Carlo Acutis. Blessed Carlo designed and created the Vatican approved Eucharistic Miracles Exhibition. Please join us Tuesday, August 30, 1PM in Holy Cross Church for I Am Here and From London to the World to learn more about Blessed Carlo and the upcoming Sept/Oct exhibition.

Vocation Perspective - "The one who humbles himself will be exalted." Jesus was a humble servant to all He met. He made sure everyone else's needs were taken care of before he looked to His own. You may be called to religious life as a priest, deacon or sister to be a servant to others. Call Father Jason Hage at 315-470-1468, or write: vocations@syrdio.org.

A Prayer Chain is in place at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. Serving on the Prayer Chain is a way for good people to serve God and to bring blessings to others who will be grateful for the prayers of Prayer Chain Members. If prayers for self or for others are needed and desired, please call the Parish Office at 315-652-4300 and your prayer requests will be forwarded to Angie Peterson.

Anima Christi

(prayed by St. Elizabeth after Communion)

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide me.
Permit me not to be separated from you.
From the wicked foe, defend me.
At the hour of my death, call me
and bid me come to you
That with your saints I may praise you for ever and ever. Amen.
